Greensboro bakers have reduced the size of their loaf of bread and thereby increased the cost of living.

The Florida House of Representatives endorses the administration and especially America's neutrality. Bully for Florida.

The Panama-Pacific Exposition is a huge success. The first month showed an attendance of 2,024,704—a record breaker for world's expositions. See America first is no doubt the slogan adopted since the big war is on and California and the golden west is a big part of it in scenery and other natural grandeur.

If High Point would be attractive to visitors and a healthful place for our homepeople, no food should be exposed to flies in its grocery stores, food-shops and market; its hotels, cafes and restaurants should not be swarming with flies and its streets and vacant lots should never be seen littered with trash and unsightly objects. Kelp make High Point the "City Beautiful" as well as the "City Healthy."

That we have had our annual clean-up week does not indicate that our town will remain clean for a year and that there's no more cleaning up to be done. Keeping clean can not be accomplished through one event of a year or a season. It becomes more than a weekly necessity. It demands nothing more than daily practice. Make a habit and keep clean for cleanliness is health.

SPRING TIME AND NATURE.

The violets and they are with us again, the delicate sweet scented flower that is painted with the colors of the blue sky—a symbol of innocence and tender regard. The tulips have lifted their heads to the skies and drank of Spring's nectar, the foliage of the trees and the beautiful colorings of bloom and blossom all attest the wonderful works of nature and impress mankind of the awakening of mother earth from her long winter's sleep. The bee and the bird flit here and there gathering the sweets of life from tree and earth, the farmer busies himself with plough and hoe. All nature is attuned to the beautiful spring time, the resurrection, as it were.

Hand in your subscription to The Review today and start with the opening chapter of "Black Box," which begins today. The pictures begin Monday at "The Point" theater, High Point's new moving picture house.

The County Commissioners after hearing from High Point's large delegation last Thursday, decided to grant their appeal and work will commence at an early date on the road between here and Greensboro. There are other roads not leading in the direction of Greensboro that also need fixing badly—the Archdale road and the Thomasville road and we wonder why these cannot receive attention also. Of course we refer to that part of these roads within the confines of this county.

If we tolerate unclean stables, open-back privates and garbage piles in our town this summer, we may expect no other than to lose a number of our babies from diarrhoeal diseases or summer complaint and a number of our boys and girls, men and women as well, from typhoid fever. The reasoning is this: Stables and dump piles are the main breeding places of flies; privies are the main feeding places for flies; privies are the main sources of typhoid and diarrhoeal diseases and flies are the main carriers of these diseases to men, women and children.

The life of an automobilist is one blamed misfortune after another. As long as everything goes smoothly alright but the trouble comes at the very worst times. This editor, perhaps, has had more than his share of trouble.

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the Dr. J. T. Burrus residence next to the hospital.

With the advent of spring the noise of the saw and hammer is heard more promiscuously and it will only be a short time until the good old times as of yore will be experienced in High Point. In the meantime keep a stiff upper lip and boost the town. Nothing was ever gained by a knock or even an insinuation along the line of despair.

THE HORRORS OF WAR.

Down in New York the cafes ring with the new English comic war song "Sister Susie's Sewing Shirts for Soldiers." This journal, always to the fore front with pertinent suggestions, offers a few refrains, around each of which our finest little song carpenters are invited, even challenged, to construct full fledged lyrics. And, that we may not be charged with partiality, we will include all of other the warring countries (that we can remember.)

Rosie's Ripping Rags for Rampant Russians,
Susie Sings So Serbia will Scrap;
Pollie's Planning Panties for the Prussian's,
Jennie's Jarring Jelly for a Jap;
Fannie's Frilling Fancy Fobs for Frenchmen,
Austrians Accept Amanda's Work,
Bettie's Basting Belly bands for Belgians,

AND Tillie's Tatting Ties for the Turk.

Does Our Merchants Get Their Share?

(By W. H. Dugdale.)

We read of great activity in trade of ever kind,
Of factories paying wages that are fair;
If all this great activity is ever realized,
Will the honest toiling merchant get his share?

When corn and wheat demand a price that makes the broker rich,
While pork and beef are high just let us know;
When money is invested in things we need at home,
Does the local merchant always get a share?

The merchants of our city are the main shaft of all trade,
The men who guard our interests every day;
While people leave our city to purchase their supplies,
In justice to the merchant does it pay?

The Review each week has printed a list of local men
Who will furnish goods in every line of trade;
The prices are the lowest that the market can afford,
And the goods the very best that's in the trade.

Every single advertiser gives an honest guarantee
That is backed by honest dealing and fair play;
Buy the goods you need in High Point
help to boom the town;

An investment that has never failed to pay.
Don't imagine things are better that you buy away from home,
A mistake that is indulged in by just a few;

Any merchant in the city will duplicate the bill,
Just try it now, the job is up to you.
The Review is out on Thursday, read the latest Proverb Page
Read the ads, and all the other news you'll find;

Get posted on the efforts that are made to get your trade,
You will find it leaves our neighbors far behind.
The world is getting wise and the merchant with the rest,
For better times and comfort will prepare;

The keynote of prosperity is buy your goods at home
And see the honest merchant get his share.

A HIGH POINT INTERVIEW

Mr. Remfrey Tells His Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with a High Point man nearly four years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen:

F. C. Remfrey, 512 S. Main St., High Point, N. C., says: "I was so bad with kidney trouble that I didn't believe there was a cure for me. My back and limbs were so sore that I couldn't get up from a sitting position without assistance. The kidney secretions were scanty and highly colored. I looked badly and felt worse. I doctored and tried medicines faithfully, but didn't get a cure until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. A few boxes of this medicine put me in good health." (Statement given January 16, 1911.)

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Remfrey added: "I can never praise Doan's Kidney Pills too highly in return for the good they did me a few years ago. I confirm every word of my former endorsement."

To The Citizens of Guilford County.

The Board of Commissioners of Guilford County, after a careful consideration of the question of providing for our county a county building and courthouse suitable for the future use and purposes of its citizens, have unanimously determined, as authorized by the General Assembly of North Carolina, to submit to the voters of the county of Guilford the question of issuing $250,000.00 in bonds for the purpose of erecting such a building on the site of the old courthouse.

The property owned by the county at the corner of Elm and Market streets in the city of Greensboro is very valuable, and the condition of the title to a portion of the same as determined by the courts, prevents its sale for such an amount as would justify a removal of the site.

The question presents itself to the Board as to the best practicable way to utilize this valuable site without burdening the tax-payers of the county and at the same time obtain a modern up-to-date fire-proof building for county purposes. Such a building as would meet all the necessities and wants of the county and at the same time from which revenue could be obtained to help bear the burden of its construction and maintenance.

The Board did not think it businesslike or wise to erect on property worth $150,000.00 a building to be used only as a county courthouse. The County of Guilford, considering the value of this site and the necessary cost of the construction of such a building, would, in their opinion, be paying a very exorbitant rental therefor. The amount of the rental necessarily increasing each year as the value of the site would increase.

The board, although unanimously in favor of the issuing of the bonds and the building of such a county building and courthouse as contemplated by the act of the General Assembly, did not wish unless a majority of the qualified voters agreed with them to authorize the issuing of such bonds and the expenditure of the moneys derived from their sale. They, therefore, provided in the act of the General Assembly, the draft of which was prepared at their instance for an election to be held, thus enabling the voters of the county, after careful consideration, to determine the action of the Board.

The Board has not attempted to adopt in advance of the election any particular architectural designs but it is their intention, if the election shall result in favor of issuing the bonds, to thoroughly study this question after giving any citizen of the county an opportunity to be heard and to secure the services and advice of competent architects to guide them.

The Board is unwilling to construct any type of building which will not meet the requirements of the county for a number of years to come and which will not produce revenue to aid in decreasing the cost of its construction and maintenance. They are, therefore, in favor of allowing the present building, with some needed repairs, to remain, rather than burden the taxpayers to erect simply a courthouse upon this valuable property belonging to the county.

Respectfully,
W. C. BOREN,
Chrmn. Board of County Commrs.
